

Continuity and Change in American Leadership 2019

JANUARY 6-12

JANUARY 13-19

WASHINGTON, D.C.
COME FOR ONE OR TWO WEEKS

A new era in American politics and international relations is presenting the U.S. profound challenges to established approaches to education, business, journalism, politics, diplomacy and even science. This program brings together leading journalists, analysts, diplomats, and educators to examine the significance of the times and to explore what is new, what is ephemeral, and what is lasting. Informed speakers, visits to Washington institutions, and diverse student participation make this a unique experiential learning opportunity for tomorrow's leaders.

Program Cost: $750 for two weeks or $500 for one week.

Housing Available: Please inquire about affordable housing options. Housing is also available prior to and after the program for purposes of self-arranged programming.

Registrations: Accepted on a rolling basis; Deadline is December 3, 2018. Payment due by Dec. 10, 2018.

Contact us for more information and an application form:

The Osgood Center for International Studies
1629 K St, NW, Suite 300
Washington, DC 20006

Email: alpert@osgoodcenter.org

Phone: 202-349-1698, X11698

<http://www.osgoodcenter.org>

@osgoodcenter

Shane Harris of the Washington Post and Dr. Shelton Williams of the Osgood Center discussing national security issues.

Some participants from January '17 pose for a photo with Ann Marie Buerkle, former Congresswoman and currently chair of the Consumer Product Safety Commission.